Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not complete Form TD1NT form, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1NT for 2014, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1NT, enter "0" on line 12 on the front page and do not complete lines 2 to 11.

Total income less than total claim amount

☐ Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, complete "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted if on your income tax return you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, and charitable donations). To make this request, complete Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source for Year(s) _____, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
